Were you just beginning to forget the summer's most ubiquitous song, Daft Punk's "Get Lucky"? Well, the Russian Ministry of Internal Affairs' choir is here to make the song relevant once again. Yes, it's true, the Russian Police are up all night to get lucky.

In what seems to be preparation for a concert at the Kremlin over the weekend, the choir belts out a hilarious rendition of the D.P. diddy, accompanied by some random smoke effects and above-the-waist dance moves. Don't be fooled by appearances though, these singers pull off falsettos like professionals.
