These cops can have some fun.

Russia's Police Choir filmed a cover performance of Daft Punk's summer smash "Get Lucky," featuring a smoke machine and comically un-suave dance moves.

The song's lyrics – "She's up all night for good fun/ I'm up all night to get lucky" – conceivably clash with the officers' crisp suits and shiny medals.

But somehow, somehow, it works.

The video has been viewed nearly 1.5 million times since it was posted to YouTube three days ago.
