The Spectacle of the famous Red Army Choir

Between the 21st and 23rd of September the public in Romania are invited to attend the premiere, three impressive performances supported by the prestigious RED ARMY CHOIR ensemble led by General Viktor Eliseev.

The Red Army Choir will conquer the audience of Cluj's Sala Polyvalenta on September 21 while on the 22nd and 23rd of September the famous ensemble will perform at the Sala Palatului in Bucharest. Besides fascinating dances and costumes, the Red Army Choir will pass through various musical styles, its repertoire is composed of traditional Russian music, sacred music, opera arias and popular songs such as "Katiusha", "Kalinka", "Kernina" or "Ave Maria". Also, the successful repertoire includes songs from today, such as "Lucky" (Daft Punk), "Happy" (Pharrell Williams), etc.

The Red Army Choir MVD show that will be presented to the public in Cluj and Bucharest, has had over seven thousand performances, played on all continents and was watched by over 20 million viewers worldwide.

The famous singer Celine Dion had as guests members of the Red Army Choir in a special show presented three years ago by a French television station, at the launch of her new album. Along with baritone Vincent Niclo, the Red Army Choir sang one of the artist's successful songs, "All by Myself". The incredible talent of Russian artists brought Celine Dion to tears, being overwhelmed by emotions.

The Red Army Choir MVD is the only military body which has received the "Platinum Star", dedicated to great Russian artists while fifty of the ensemble's artists have received the supreme title of "Honored Artist of Russia".

The Red Army Choir's performance in Bucharest is part of the international tour that debuted with great success in May 2015, in Istanbul and Ankara. The best show in the world of music and dance performed by famous ensemble will arrive by the end of this year for performances on big stages in Hungary, France, Belgium, Switzerland, Slovakia, and Italy.
